PEARL HARBOR, T.H. (Special to The Register)—Engaged in the program of funneling supplies to the vast Pacific fleet from here is S. 2/c JOSEPH VARGAS, of Niles, Calif.

Vargas was stationed at Shoemaker before coming here for duty. He was a carpenter until joining the Navy in April, 1943. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Vargas of Niles.

The importance of the depot's work was emphasized by Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, when he described this was a a conflict of "beans, bullets, and oil"—all problems of logistics handled by Supply. The depot here is the chief link in the chain of supply for the mighty fleet now battering at the doors of Tokyo.

ABOARD A HEAVY CRUISER OFF OKINAWA (Delayed)—(Special to The Register) — Herman August, coxswain, U.S.N.A., of Niles, Calif., is serving on this veteran fighting ship now standing off Okinawa with all batteries pounding away at the crumbling enemy stronghold and its dwindling Jap defenders.

This cruiser has harried the Japs for three years of Pacific warfare. She won the reputation as a top fighting unit in the memorable slugging match against the Japs off Savo Island in November, 1942.

She added to her reputation at all the major Pacific stops—Bougainville, Salamaua, Guadalcanal, the Aleutians, the Gilberts and Marshalls, Carolines and Marianas, Iwo Jima and the Ryukyus.

Now deep in the western Pacific, she is gunning for more glory. In a week of softening Okinawa before invasion, it was estimated this ship destroyed or knocked out 19

Seventh War Loan Bond Sales Reach $110,000; 27 Per Cent of Quota

Sales of "E" bonds to date in the Seventh War Loan drive have reached 27 per cent of the quota, according to figures released yesterday afternoon by Chairman Loren Marriott. In round figures, $110,000 of bonds have been purchased. Quota for the township is $483,976.

"More public interest is being shown in this Seventh War Loan," I believe," said Marriott, "than in any previous bond drive. Our town chairman and their coworkers all are working enthusiastically and hard.

"While at first our increased quota for this drive looked very large in comparison with the quota for the Sixth Loan, I feel assured now that we will make our goal."

Interest in the drive is being well sustained through the efforts of the various town chairmen. At numerous public gatherings attention has been called to this biggest bond drive of all. In Centerville a 20-foot thermometer in front of the Bank of America building has been set up to show progress of sales. Fourteen thousand personal messages to township people are being enclosed with statements and pay checks, urging increased bond purchases.

nesses and corporations, Marriott

As for the sale of bonds to busi- already sees the completed quota not far off. Against a quota of $177,000, more than $160,000 of these bonds have been purchased to date.

Marriott has called a meeting of his town chairmen and their assistants at the high school Wednesday evening, June 13, at 7:30 o'clock.

LOCAL MAN TELLS OF EXPERIENCES ON BOMBED SHIP

Chief Quartermaster L. E. (Pat) Hudson, son-in-law of H. J. Martinson of Niles, arrived Wednesday, May 30, on a 30-day leave from his ship, the U.S.S. Comfort, which recently was bombed by a Japanese suicide plane in the South Pacific.

Hudson, who was in his quarters in the forward part of the ship when she was hit, said of the attack:

"She was about 60 miles off Okinawa, fully illuminated and showing red crosses. About half an hour before being hit, just before sunset, a Jap plan came over us and circled. That night he dove on us with a bomb attached to his plane and hit amidships right below one of the red crosses."

The plane destroyed the surgical ward and X-ray laboratories.

The bomb killed 29 persons and seriously injured 33. Among the casualties were six nurses, all of the Navy surgeons, and many patients.

Parts of the plane wreckage were scattered about the decks. Part of the Jap pilot's body was found, indicating that he was 16 to 18 years old.

One of the casualties was a Catholic chaplain, Father Wieland of San Leandro. He died of burns received. Hudson had been present at the commissioning services in 1944 when Father Wieland gave the ship's prayer.

Hudson brought back as a souvinir part of a timing gear from the Jap plane and a piston of the engine, out of which he has made an ash tray.

He and his wife, the former Elenora Martinson, are spending his leave at the H. J. Martinson home. Their two-year-old daughter Patricia Lee is staying with friends in San Leandro.

DECOTO CHAMBER HOLDS MEETING

A record crowd of 25 attended the last meeting of the Decoto Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening. The liveliest meeting on record took place.

Up for discussion were the water situation, which appears to be uppermost in the minds of Decotoans, a new memorial monument, and improvement of the street lighting system by addition of new lights.

Plans were discussed for making a memorial park commemorating those who gave their lives in the war.

21-YEAR-OLD BOY DIES OF INJURIES

Funeral services were held yesterday for J. C. Giles, who died June 3 in the Santa Clara County Hospital as a result of an accident June 2 in which his car hit the side of a train in Milpitas.

Giles, who was 21 year old and a native of Oklahoma, was an employee of the steel mill. He was the son of Mrs. Florence Giles of Warm Springs and the brother of Loretta Townlain, Nora Yeakey, Marie Giles, and Carl Giles all of Warm Springs.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock yesterday at the Chapel of the Palms with the Rev. Evaul officiating. Interment was at the I.O.O.F. cemetery in Irvington.

GORDON KIBBY TAKES PRIZES AT CAMPOREE

Young Gordon Kibby brought home the bacon (not literally, of course or he would have been mobbed) from the big annual Boy Scout Camporee which was held in Oakland last week-end. Gordon won first and second prizes on model airplanes with his Grumman F3P3 and Republic P47, and is receiving congratulations from his friends and brother Scouts.

Both Niles and Decoto troops journeyed to Oakland for the big event and were accompanied by their scoutmasters, Bill Koski and Dave Janeiro, and Assistant Scoutmaster Fred Duffie. George Roeding Jr. loaned one of his trucks to take the boys to the scene of action, and Fred Sanchez also loaned a truck.

One of the outstanding features of the meet was the pack frame made and demonstrated under the tutelage of Scoutmaster Koski.

Points have not yet been decided upon by the judges, but both Niles and Decoto will be way up there when it comes time to make the awards. Both troops are certain of this.

Chefs Bruce and Sandy Roeding did themselves proud in preparing meals for the boys, who ate heartily and with typical Boy Scout gusto.

BIG WAR BOND SHOW COMES HERE NEXT WEEK

A big War Bond show and parade are coming to the township next Friday and Saturday, June 15 and 16, with Walter Conolly and "Tony" Andrade making arrangements.

Complete plans have not been made yet. Tentative plans, however, call for a thrilling display of rolling equipment, including a tank destroyer, music, motion pictures, and even the visitation of Captain Kirby of the Air Force and three enlisted men.

Detailed announcement will be published in next week's Register. Watch for it.

HIGH SCHOOL GOES OVER BOND QUOTA

Washington Union High School overshot its 7th War Loan quota by more than $5000, according to final figures at the close of the drive. The quota set was $8,877.50 and the amount bought by the students was $13,987.50.

In the contest among classes the juniors walked off with the blue ribbon, the freshmen stepping closely on their heels.

Decoto Mill Burns With Heavy Loss; Fire Sweeps Hillside

Two fires held the attention of the township this week when Niles and Decoto both fought spectacular blazes. The fire in Decoto was by far the most costly, destroying $100,000 worth of property. Starting early last Sunday, the blaze, caused by a spark from a blow-torch, spread throughout the entire New Colma Mill and Lumber Company plant and wrought complete destruction.

Nearly a hundred employees of the mill were left jobless after the fire.

The plant, owned, by C. T. Lindsay of San Francisco, had been actively engaged in supplying several types of war goods and held government contracts for over 30,000 prefabricated houses.

Twenty-five per cent of the lumber that was stacked near the main unit was destroyed by the fire.

Trucks were called from Niles and Hayward by Chief Roland Bendel.

According to Bendel the main reason the departments were unable to stop the fire was the lack of available fire hydrants. The nearest hydrant was 1000 feet from the mill.

The fire in back of Niles began at 4 o'clock on the hill next to the Belvoir Hotel and lasted for nearly two hours. It spread along the hillside and seriously threatened the Vail Barber service station.

While the fire was being held in check by the Niles fire department at the top of the hill, members of the Boy Scouts and other school children kept the fire from reaching the service station.

Among the children who helped fight the fire were Tom Hoggs, Howard Mendoza, Gordon Kibby, Bill Thomas, and Bob Wilmath.

The boys later were treated to soft drinks by Walter Wieland.

TWO NEW TEACHERS FOR HIGH SCHOOL

At the Tuesday meeting of the board of trustees of Washington Union High School, two new teachers were employed. Miss Audrey Carmody will take the place of Miss Evelyn Wilson as home-making instructor. Miss Carmody formerly taught at Martinez.

Bruce C. Phillips will teach physical education, social studies, and mathematics. Mr. Phillips is from Fort Bragg.

Attending for the first time was A. E. Alameda, newly appointed board member. Edward Enos, who will begin service in July, was sworn in.

Mrs. Eleanor Lewis of Centerville was employed as a cafeteria assistant.

School will probably open next fall on September 11 and will run until June 14.

MRS. BENDEL IS INSTALLED AS NEW PRESIDENT

For the first time in its history, the Country Club of Washington Township is honored by having one of its past-presidents elected as president of the Past Presidents Assembly of Alameda County. Mrs. Roland Bendel, popular Niles matron, is the one on whom this honor has been bestowed.

Mrs. Bendel was installed at a large tea held last Monday at the Universal Clubhouse in Piedmont before a crowd of more than 100 women.

Accompanying Mrs. Bendel were the following past-presidents of the local club: Mmes. E. H. Hirsch, C. E. Martenstein, F. Dusterberry, E. A. Ellsworth, R. L. Pond, A. May, Walter Robie and George Hellwig.

Last Wednesday, Mrs. Bendel entertained eight of the newly-elected officers of the assembly at luncheon. The group met at her home and made plans for the ensuing year, which include war work—and more war work.

ELABORATE SETTING FOR DECOTO PLAY

Plans for the graduation exercises to be given June 15 at the Decoto Grammar School are well under way for the 30 students who will entertain their parents and friends with a play, "Mexican Fiesta," which was written by Mrs. Schaaf and Mrs. Quilici.

Mrs. Frieda Seebock, who teaches in one of the emergency rooms, was one of the teachers assigned to paint the 16-foot square backdrop to be used in the play.

Mrs. Seebock's husband, a draftsman in Oakland and an interior decorator, painted the entire scene, which depicts life in a small Mexican town.

After presentation of the play, the students will hear an address by Vaughn Seidel, superintendent of schools, and will be awarded their diplomas.

NILES KIDS MAY HAVE CHANCE TO LEARN TO SWIM

It may not be long before Niles children will have a chance to take swimming instruction, if present plans of the Niles P.T.A. are brought to successful fruition.

At the last executive board meeting of the P.T.A. a committee headed by Mrs. L. R. Batman was appointed to investigate the possibility of obtaining free swimming instruction for grade school children under Red Cross sponsorship.

Many Niles mothers already have expressed their interest, feeling that their children would be safer around the Alameda Creek area if they knew how to swim.

ALVARADO SCOUT COMMITTEE MEETS

Members of the Alvarado Boy Scout committee will meet next Monday evening to discuss plans for the court of honor to be held some time in June.

Meeting on the committee will be Lester Maffey, secretary; Charles Baird, treasurer; Joseph E. Dutra, scoutmaster; Anthony J. Vargas; M. A. Silva Jr.; Manuel Perry, Frank P. George, George Oakes, and Walter Oakie.

OUR READERS WRITE . . .

Mrs. Joseph Fereira of Niles received from Pvt. Ernest Manuel in the South Pacific the following poem. Pvt. Manuel is the son of Joseph Manuel of Niles.

FOR HONOR AND FOR HER

Somewhere a woman, thrusting fear away
Faces the future bravely for your sake;
Toils on from dawn till dark, from day to day;
Fights back her tears, nor heeds the bitter ache.
She loves you, trusts you, breathes in prayer your name.
Soil not her faith in you by sin or shame.

Somewhere a woman — mother, sweetheart, wife—
Waits betwixt hopes and fears for your return.
Her kiss, her words will cheer you in strife
When death itself confronts you, grim and stern.
But let her image all your reverence claim
When base temptations scorch you with their flame.

Somewhere a woman watches — filled with pride,
Shrined in her heart you share a place with none.
She toils, she waits, she prays—till side by side
You stand together when the battle's done.
Oh, keep for her dear sake a stainless name;
Bring back to her a manhood free from shame.

The Editor, Sir

As I sit on my bunk writing to my many friends there at home I also have two Township Registers, May 11 and May 18 editions, beside me. It may please you to know that I have received all editions and as all the boys in service, both in the states and overseas, I read them over and over, making sure that I haven't missed any news. A fellow may read the daily paper printed where he is stationed, but there is no news half so good as home news—and to me, your coverage has been tops.

It has been 13 months since I was last at home, and believe me we have not missed anything and will not be too surprised at the various changes which have taken place in our absence. Keep those papers coming.

As for duty here, it has been wonderful—as far as the experience goes—because I am in the Transportation Department and Motor Pool for the Fifth Naval District Air Bases, under Lt. Comdr. A. B. Millard. I have charge of preparing all types of equipment that is issued on the station and its auxiliary airfields. It's made me very familiar with individual makes and types. I have one jeep assigned to me personally so that I may be able to get around the station. With that experience I was able to take my Motor Machinist Mate 3/c test and pass it.

The weather here is a good deal like home but the seasons are 3 weeks later. Not much large farming as one sees around home. Main crops are early potatoes, cotton and peanuts. Of all the regions and types of farming—I believe I prefer Washington Township for the varied and intensive farming done there. Since being inducted 15 months ago I have traveled through 26 states.

Best regards, and continued success to the paper.

Mo.M.M. 3/c Anthony J. Silva

Masonic Home, Decoto, June 2
The Editor, Sir:

I was interested in reading in The Register of June 1 the thrilling front-page story of the township soldier of his experience as a paratrooper, especially as on the date of its publication I had received a V-Mail letter from Sgt. John Haslam, son of my nephew, L. G. Halsam of Santa Cruz, telling me that the fourth year of his service overseas had been with the American 18th Airborne Corps.

His first two years were in Iceland. Later while on furlough in England he married a Yorkshire girl in the WAFS Service, who will occompany him to Santa Cruz, where he will join his father in business.

He writes: "I have been very lucky and now all I'm sweating out is my discharge from the Army. I have more than enough points to get out under our demobilization plan.

"I am located in Espanay, France. Here I celebrated V Day. I was a little disappointed at the celebration. The French tried to make a big thing of it, but one could not help but feel that their hearts were not in it. For them the day was their liberation—I'm right in the heart of the champagne district and though we drink a great deal I would gladly trade all the champagne for a good bottle of beer and all of France for a good square mile of America!"

Incidentally, my nephew was here Sunday, June 3, and it was my pleasure to hand him The Register with your paratrooper's story, which will finally reach the Santa Cruz boy in France.

When Will Japan Surrender?

Roger W. Babson, financial genius has sent us his views on the end of the war with Japan, which we publish here:

BABSON PARK, Mass., June 8—May I start by calling attention to the definite statements made in my Annual Forecast of December 28, 1944, in which I said:

"The greater part of Germany's army will collapse before the German planting season opens in the spring of 1945.

"Japan will not hold out so long as most people think. Japan will collapse within 6 or 12 months after Germany collapses.

"If Stalin's health continues, he will be the world's most powerful man in 1945 and may dictate the peace terms, especially for the Pacific."

I am especially proud of the above forecast in view of the conditions under which it was written. Readers will remember that last summer the public was very hopeful and looked for the collapse of Germany at any time; but I said that there would be no collapse in 1944. Then the Germans started their famous bulge in the middle of December and Washington was very much disturbed. In fact, a study of newspaper clippings will show that I was almost the only columnist who was optimistic at the close of last year. But I knew the German temperament.

I have been in Japan since Germany declared war upon us and still have an agent in Shanghai. I, further, have always been interested in American missions in both Japan and China. I, however, am basing my present forecast upon something else which may seem very unimportant to many readers. I refer to the fact that my personal house-servant is Japanese, born near Tokyo. He has lived with us day and night for 20 years and was preceded by a cousin who was with us for seven years. Hence, I know the Japanese temperament.

It is true that certain Japanese who descended from a famous old prince have the "hari kari" religion. These few will commit suicide rather than surrender. They now serve as human bombs. This, however, makes up but a small portion of the Japanese people who, as a whole, are human like ourselves actuated by the same motives. A Japanese soldier will live on very little food. This he can carry on his back. They are tough physical specimens. Hence, it costs the Japanese only twenty per cent to support their army of what it costs us to support an American Army. But what of this? Japan has less than twenty per cent of our resources.

Japanese soldiers will fearlessly obey orders and follow a blue-print; but when something which they have not planned for happens, they are lost. As a nation, they are wonderful copyists, but they lack originality. They had every movement of this war planned and charted before Pearl Harbor. Everything went according to plan in connection with Thailand, Indio-China, Burma, the Dutch East Indies and the Philippines. Then something happened to their blueprint!

During the past year their plans have been of no use and they have suffered accordingly. In my own household, I can give a wonderful banquet for twenty people if I give my Jap a week to prepare it, but if I bring home one person to dinner for whom he has not planned, he is completely upset. They prosper on success; but cannot stand failure. Hence, I feel certain that their collapse will be only a question of months.

All the above means that the global war will be over before most people expect it. It will be over before all the boys in Europe have a chance to get to the Pacific. Except in special departments, the casualties will be light. Most of the boys may be home before Christmas.

The above means that re-conversion will steadily continue throughout the year and some time during next year we will be going full-blast on consumer production. A few excellent years of business with higher stock prices should follow. Furthermore, if we play fair with Russia, Joseph Stalin should be one of our best friends so long as he lives. Upon his death, it is very possible that Russia will be split up or suffer civil revolution. Then she surely need not be a menace to the British Empire, to China or to ourselves.

MISSION SAN JOSE

LOIS JUSTUS, Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Silva and family of the Mission were indeed happy this week-end as their son and brother, S/Sgt. Henry M. Silva, returned from the war. Henry is a tail gunner on one of Uncle Sammy's big bombers and has flown 45 missions over Berlin and German territory. He has been in the service nearly two years and has been "over there" for the past seven months. He was in one of the bombers that participated in the 2000 plane raid over Berlin not too long ago and says he was just a lucky guy to be here now. It was terrific. His squadron holds the Presidential citation and he wears the Silver Leaf, an equivalent of five oak leaf clusters. He is to be home for thirty days and then to Santa Ana for further training on bombers, then out to try his luck at the Japs.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Brown of Bryant Street arrived back at their home on Sunday following a lovely vacation spent in the south at San Pedro with relatives and friends. Said the weather was perfect and they enjoyed every bit of it

Your correspondent has been informed by letter that Edward "Neddie" Witherly of the U. S. Army, on duty for the past 34 months in Honolulu, T. H., has arrived back here for a well earned furlough. Last Sunday there was a party held for him which amounted to a family reunion, but of course, the service men in the family could not be there as they are too widely scattered. Those in attendance were Mrs. June Granville and daughter, Nancy, of Oakland; Miss Claire Witherly of San Jose; Mr. and Mrs. Dutra and daughters of Los Gatos; Chaplain and Mrs. DeFoe (the former Cussie Witherly) of Tucson, Arizona, Mr. and Mrs. Clevenger and family of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Art Ruskofsky and family, of Oakland (the former Helen Mae Witherly); and his mother, Mrs. Cassie Witherly who was a resident of the Mission for many years.

On Sunday, the Garden City Transportation, Inc., of San Jose, held their annual picnic and get-together at Linda Vista Park here in the Mission. There was a fairly large crowd in attendance and swimming, dancing, games and contests as well as a ball game helped to entertain the crowd, and the kiddies enjoyed the rollo and ferris wheel.

Mrs. Elna "Teddy" Pereira of the Mission attended the funeral of her only aunt and relative in San Jose Monday. Beautiful services were held at the Trinity Episcopal Church for Mrs. Jennie Costello, 87 years old and a resident of San Jose for the past 50 years. She was very active to the last in her church work and in Red Cross and all things pertaining to the war effort. Her pallbearers were all grown men whom she helped usher into this world at one time or another, as she was a practical nurse or many years. She was interred at the Hillside Memorial Park in San Jose.

Mrs. Ann Mayock of the Los Amigos Vineyards, near Irvington, is in the south at Los Angeles and various other places enjoying a very nice vacation. Her daughter, Sally, of the Berkeley University, is keeping the home fires burning while "Mom's' away.

Mrs. Marianna Santos, wife of J. C. Santos of the Mission-Niles highway, is at Santa Cruz visiting relatives and friends for a few days.

Leaving for New York on Tuesday evening, Mrs. Vernon Bastian, the former Lorraine Rogers, daughter of Mrs. Rose Rogers of the Mission, will join her husband, Pvt. Vernon Bastian, U. S. Air Corps, at Mitchell Field. The young folks will reside in Nef Hempstead if tey can find a place as the housing situation is very bad there too. Mrs. Bastian and her husband came home on furlough some time ago and saw Lorraine's brother, Chief Sr. Clifford Rogers, who had just returned from sea duty and was married to Esther Goularte while home.

DECOTO NEWS

By ELSA WALKER

The Craft Class, taught by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Graves in Decoto this year, was brought to a delightful close by a party at the home of Mrs. Ethel Avilla, with Mrs. Vivian Panigua as a most charming co-hostess. After the class completed its last work for the year, they adjourned to the Avilla home where a lovely table welcomed them with a most striking flower arrangement and a beautifully decorated cake with the legend, "To a grand couple." A gift of money was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Graves to purchase a remembrance and after cake and coffee, Mr. Graves made a short talk on the history of the class and of its accomplishments.

Over three years ago Mrs. Graves was asked to direct some craft work for a club of little girls at the library. He said that because the Graves' do everything together, he was soon helping her and the class soon became an adult class in leather work. For two years Mr. Graves donated an hour a week to this community work and it has been a great source of satisfaction to the class that this year it was made a part of the night school work with appropriate compensation. Probably no night school class has been a source of more satisfaction to its students. They have sold hundreds of dollars worth of their work in both tooled and the far more difficult but more elaborate carved leather work. The latter was taken up for the first time this year.

No person leaves a richer and more enduring legacy to a community that he who develops the creative art of its people and Mr. and Mrs. Graves and Mrs. McWhirter of Centerville for her flower arrangement classes several years ago are the greatest benefactors of Decoto in their inspiration to love and to creative beauty.

Mr. Graves is planning to continue some form of craft work in Decoto next year and perhaps wood carving will be taken up as Mr. Graves is an artist of genius in this medium of expression.

The Decoto Penochle Club had a very happy session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Costa Saturday evening, June 2. The spacious living room was decorated with attractive flower arrangements.

High score was won by Ethel Avilla with Mrs. Wallace, Miss Linda Cunha and Mr. Dondero also salvaging a few war stamps. Mrs. Costa served delicious ice cream, cookies and coffee, assisted by her daughter, Rosalyn. Mrs. Fred Duffie was a guest and as it was her first engagement with penochle, she wore a look of mild perplexity during the playing which will undoubtedly disappear with experience.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wallace.

Sportsmen's News

By RICHARD JOLLY

A digest of news of fishing over the state shows that trout fishing, after getting off to a flying start, has simmered down with most spots reported only fair. A bulletin from the "National Motorist" declares that lakes in high altitudes are still frozen over and roads in very bad condition. All successful fishing has been done with bait.

Coastal streams are lowering rapidly and supplying few limits. Streams feeding main rivers in the San Joaquin Valley are still high and quite muddy. Trout taken in these streams, while quite small, and scarce, are said to be in excellent condition.

The outlook for black bass fishing is only fair. Feed in muddy rivers is plentiful and bait must be very alluring to tempt a well fed bass. Live minnows will probably take some bass in the sloughs off the San Joaquin and Stanislaus rivers but plug fishermen will have to wait for warmer weather.

Fishing prospects generally are expected to improve after June 1. Meanwhile striped bass fishermen find that species running true to form by appearing in the San Pablo Bay. Good catches have been made there recently and will probably continue for some time. As yet very few seem to have moved up Old River but good catches of catfish are reported in the sloughs in that area. Incidentally, it was 63 years ago that Emmet L. Marks of Old Forge, New York, who brought the second planting of striped bass to California. In 1882 Marks transported a shipment of 300 striped bass from Shrewsbury River, New Jersey, to California. Division of Fish & Game records show that 111,000 anglers in the vicinity of Suisan Bay took 2,035,000 striped bass in 1941, all of legal size. Mr. Marks is 89 at the present writing and sportsmen of California have a deep appreciation of his work.

MR. NILES VISITS IN NILES. WANTS INFO

DOESN'T FIND MUCH—CAN YOU HELP OUT?

A stalwart young fellow in uniform approached one of our leading citizens of Niles the other day and said, "My name is Niles. I'm stationed over at Ft. Scott, and I promised my mother in Boston that if I ever got anywhere close to your little town I would come over here and find out how it got its name."

The young man—or more likely the young man's mother — obviously was hoping that it had been named after an ancestor.

The leading citizen, however, wasn't quite sure how Niles got its name, nor were others to whom the handsome young man talked.

So he bought a picture postcard taken when big white letters spelled out NILES on the hillside and he said cheerfully, "Well, I can send this picture to Mom, anyhow. And tell her I tried to find out about the name." He departed.

This reporter, through her Operator X, heard this story and, being inquisitive, decided to try to find out how Niles did get its name. But without much success.

No one, it seems, is quite sure. Although the consensus appears to be that when the Central Pacific was running through Niles, before it became the Southern Pacific, a trainman—finding it necessary to tag a name on the new depot—thought it might be rather nice to use his own name which, it seems, happened to be Niles.

Another school of thought contends that this same trainman, or possibly a different one, named it after his home town of Niles, Mich.

The town originally was known as Vallejo Mills. Elizabeth Haskell Sloan dug up some interesting data about Niles, which ought to be interesting to newcomers. Though it doesn't offer any enlightenment on the reason for the name Niles, it tells some interesting history about the town. It is reprinted from the Thompson and West atlas of Alameda County, published in 1878. Bear this date in mind—1878—if names of stores and such seem confusing. The parentheitcal remarks in the quotation are Mrs. Sloan's.

"It (Niles) is the junction of the San Jose branch with the overland route of the Central Pacific Railroad, and is distant 23 miles from Oakland.

"Here Don Jose Vallejo, in 1853, at great expense constructed a flouring mill, with water for motive power, which he conducted in a long flume from the Alameda Creek. (The foundation of this mill still stands near the point where the main highway goes by underpass under the present Southern Pacific tracks.)

"This was the first mill built after that at the Mission, and in the early history of the county was famous and widely known. The mill continues to do service, not under its original proprietor, but under the management of A. & L. F. Laumeister.

"Niles has not much to boast of in the matter of population or business. Besides the mill mentioned, the business of the place is represented by a general merchandise store, kept by William Snyder, express, telegraph, and post office, quite an extensive lumber yard and warehouse by A. F. Scott, the blacksmith and repair shop of L. M. Hinckley, and the railroad restaurant of W. B. King. (Perhaps there are people still living in Niles who could point out where the above mentioned places of business existed at that time, but unless there are such old timers it is most likely that it would be impossible to locate them now, things have changed somewhat in the passing years, and with the coming of the automobile.)

"The location of Niles being at the mouth of the Alameda Canyon, and consequently capable of being well supplied with water; being the junction of two lines of railroad, and being ensconded in the coziest manner in the hills, would justify the belief that it will some day become a town of considerable size and importance. (This prophesy has to a degree come true.)

"There are no buildings, public or private, here to attract much attention, but there are two places of residence which, for beauty of location and pleasing surroundings, are notable. One is that of Capt. C. C. Scott, a few hundred yards from the mills, towards the canyon, which the captain, to perpetuate the memory of his sea-faring days, has christened 'Mizzen-Top.' The other is the property of Mr. A. J. Severance, dealer in the famous Spanish merino sheep lately brought from Addison County, Vermont.

"About three miles northwest from Niles is the railroad station."

(This was Old Town, largely where Spanish town is today.)

Until the 17th century, the flag of the Netherlands, now red, white and blue, was orange, white and blue for the House of Orange.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, BOSTON, MASS., JUNE 4, 1945

Lasting world peace has its roots in the permanency of divine laws and cannot be expected to rise from the foundations of selfish desires and aims, The Christian Science Board of Directors told the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston Monday.

Commending the efforts of the California peace conference to evolve a practical basis upon which nations might outlaw war for all time, the Directors pointed out that these efforts would be successful insofar as they reflect the operation of God's government in human affairs.

The Directors' message featured the fourth annual gathering of Christian Scientists to be held under the restrictions of wartime travel. The audience reflected the desire of the Directors that Mother Church members living beyond the 50-mile area of Boston should abide by the requests of the Office of Defense Transportation and remain at home this year.

Highlighting the meeting was the election of Mrs. Myrtle Holm Smith of Waban, Massachusetts, as President of The Mother Church for the ensuing year, succeeding Paul Stark Seeley, and the re-election of Roy Garrett Watson, Treasurer, and Mary G. Ewing, Clerk.

Christian Scientists heartily concur in the purpose of peace conference representatives in California to find ways and means to prevent war, the Directors stated. They saw these efforts as making practical the Sermon on the Mount.

"The manifestation of God's law can never fail to quiet the turbulent waters, but we must assiduously strive to rule out of our thoughts any qualities which would work against, rather than for the peace of the individual, and therefore of the world." In this way, the Directors indicated that world peace stems from the individual overcoming of human faults.

"In order to keep one's spiritual understanding clear there must be deep consecration in thought and deed to the government of divine Principle. There can be no lasting peace where selfishness reigns. Therefore, it is by those who base their thoughts upon God's laws that the present global problems can be solved and a lasting peace attained."

The Directors stated that membership in The Mother Church was now four times greater than it was 35 years ago. There is a growing awareness, they said, of the need for unselfish service to God and His law. Without frankness and honesty in the world, they added, "we have a whirlpool in which there is no steadiness and no rest."

In tribute to the courageous struggle of Great Britain against the rising tide of Naziism, at and after the time when she stood alone in her armed resistance, and to those who held on in other lands, the Directors stated: "Their consecrated prayers and unceasing efforts have been rewarded with a glorious victory."

The Directors also paid tribute to the faithful chaplains and wartime ministers who are "bringing comfort, healing, and spiritual strength" to thousands of men and women in the armed forces.

Stating that the greatest catastrophe to overtake the human race was the loss of the true import of Jesus' life and teaching, the incoming President attributed that loss to Jesus' followers reverting to their old way of thinking and living, or "trying to graft the new onto the old." She cautioned against the human race losing its spiritual gains of more recent years for the same reasons.

The assurance of the defeat of godless evil seeking world domination has made 1945 one of the most outstanding in human history, the retiring President said. While a great deal has been accomplished, he insisted, there was plenty still to be done. He impressed upon his audience, however, that the assured way of accomplishment lies within the leaven of spiritual truth implanted in human consciousness by Christ Jesus nineteen centuries ago.

"Let us rise," he said, "to the opportunities before us. Let us be eager to help solve the political, racial, and economic problems confronting the human race. Let us not fear change, but confidently expect change. Let us resolve to express more of the limitless range of thought natural to man."

That the religious rights of individuals are beginning to be recognized by those outside Christian Science was revealed by the Committee on Publication which pointed out that recently in California Christian Scientists were exempted voluntarily from proposed health insurance legislation sponsored by Governor Earl Warren and the C.I.O.

Radio activities of The Mother Church have been extended, the Committee reported, as the result of a weekly program launched over 148 stations, consisting of electrical transcriptions recorded from the auditorium of the church. These are broadcast throughout the United States and in Canada, Hawaii, and the Canal Zone.

Demands for Christian Science literature continues to increase, according to the Trustees Under the Will of Mary Baker Eddy. Mrs. Eddy's writings, for instance, were figured to have risen in sale 23 per cent from 1941 to 1942, 57 per cent in 1943, and 78 per cent in 1944. The total sales for last year were said to be more than twice those of the last full pre-war year, 1940.

The Trustees of The Christian Science Publishing Society reported the most active year in the Society's history, measured in terms of circulation, advertising, and total business volume. The Christian Science Monitor, and other publications of the Society, all reached new highs in circulation, they said. The Monitor's Paris branch has been reopened and overseas activities "will be resumed as rapidly as we are privileged to do so."

More than 1,000,000 lines of new advertising were added to the Monitor's columns, with both the number of advertisers and lineage attaining new high volumes, it was stated. The Trustees indicated that many important developments were in store for the Monitor in the postwar era, and to this end orders have been placed for new presses and other printing equipment of the finest quality.

For the third consecutive year, San Francisco is again the Bright Spot of the Nation, with the lowest combined bills for gas, electric and telephone service for average family use. (Comparably low rates apply also to other communities served by this company.)

The table above, taken from the annual report of the California Railroad Commission for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1944 shows:

1. That San Francisco has lowest utility rates among the 25 largest U. S. Cities. Average monthly bills here are $1.83 for gas, $2.37 for electricity and $3.00 for telephone—a total of $7.20. Los Angeles, with a tax-exempt municipal electric system is third with a total bill of $7.76.

2. That the monthly average bill for gas and electricity in San Francisco is $4.20. In Los Angeles the charge is $4.51. The one major city in the U. S. with a lower bill is Cleveland with $4.16—a monthly difference of only 4 cents.

Wartime conditions have brought many increases in the cost of living as well as lowering the quality of service. Your gas and electric costs have gone down and quality of service has been maintained.

MEAT PROBLEM SOLVED

I have solved the meat shortage problem. Crayfish, or crawfish—whichever you choose—is the answer. We found them—by the dozens—up in Niles Canyon. Not having eaten any yet, I can't tell you how they taste except that I have heard they're better than lobster and just as tasty as crab.

Watching them the other day, I discovered they are very tricky creatures, but their greed is their undoing. They can't resist the bait, which is dangled on a string before their beady eyes. Wary at first, they sneak up on it, then—well, you know the answer. How about a nice crayfish salad for dinner tonight?

EVERYONE GOSSIPS

This week we will take up the study of gossips. It is a very interesting study, because it includes most everyone.

Whenever you see a group of women (or men—more often than you think) sitting on the edge of their chairs talking in subdued voices, with their eyebrows cutting capers and their tongues going "tch-tch," you can rest assured that some poor innocent is on the pan, getting a good roasting.

The tragic thing about gossiping is that it is such fun! Really a stimulating sport. For instance, you're very low, perhaps, and feeling sorry for yourself. You have come to the realization that you're a pretty small cog in the big wheel of life, that nobody appreciates your real worth, and why do they rave over that stupid Minnie Blotz who is not nearly so smart or attractive as you?

What do you do then? Do you go out and prove your own worth? No. Instead, at the first opportunity, you begin to tear down Minnie Blotz.

One of your friends calls you on the phone. "Have you heard about Minnie?" she asks breathlessly.

"No!" you exclaim ecstatically. "What?" You can hardly wait. You're hoping it's the worst, whatever that should be.

It isn't the worst, but you can make a lot out of it, anyhow—and you do. You both proceed to tear Minnie to shreds. Feeling a trifle conscience-stricken at the end, you finish by saying lamely—in what you think is a generous spirit—"But Minnie has nice hair" or "Minnie can cook" or something just as inane.

After you're through with her, you feel exhilarated. You've no er "low."

Though you wouldn't admit it for the world, the fact remains that you qare probably envious or jealous of Minnie. Your opinion of yourself goes up a notch with each slanderous remark you make about the poor gal.

By the time you're through with her, you think you're rather a wonderful person, after all.

If you think it's easy NOT to talk about people, try it just for one week. Don't sit in stony silence when nice things are being said about people. Say something nice, too, if it kills you. And don't—by even a subtle hint—say anything mean about anyone.

It'll be the most difficult week you ever spent. I know. I tried it once!

heavy and light anti-aircraft emplacements, eight heavy and light gun batteries, a number of automatic weapon revetments.

In addition it is estimated she killed 2000 Jap troops and demolished 10 trucks, five tanks, a supply dump, one hangar, a lighthouse, three road junctions and four attacking aircraft.

The two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Calhoun of Niles left this week for their separate branches of the service. F. O. Kenneth Calhoun left Wednesday morning to report at Maranna, Ariz., where he will resume flying duties. He received his wings May 23, at Marfa Field, Tex.

The youngest son, Wayne, received his orders last Saturday and left Wednesday evening for San Diego, where he will go into active duty for the Navy. The diploma from Washington High which he would have received this Sunday will be given to his parents.

A party was given for both the young men by their parents last Sunday at the Calhoun ranch near Livermore. More than 60 relatives and friends from Oakland, Berkeley, and Livermore attended the huge barbecue.

Staff Sgt. CHARLEY GUEROZZI, 391st Air Service Squadron, wrote William Bliss of Niles last week that he was now stationed somewhere in Germany. He has been in the Army for three years, prior to that having worked as a bank teller in Centerville. He has been overseas two years and has seen action in France, Belgium, and Germany.

Ch. Mo. M.M. HERBERT PERRY arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Perry of Niles, last Tuesday for a 30-day leave.

Perry, who has been in the Navy for three and a half ears, joined the Navy in 1942 and after completing seven weeks basic training in San Diego was sent to Cleveland for two months training in diesel motors.

After commissioning of his ship he sailed to Africa, where he met two former school chums, now in the Seabees, Shipfitter 2/c CLARENCE TELLES and EDWARD AZEVEDO, both of Mission San Jose.

Perry has been in four invasions —Sicily, Salerno, Anzio and Normandy. His brother, S.O.M. 3/c FRANK PERRY, has been in the Coast Guard for two years, being stationed on the east coast.

DAVID CASTRO, a Marine who has fought in several major engagements in the Pacific, arrived home May 31 with enough points for discharge. This, of course, was wonderful news for his mother, Mrs. Librado Castro, of Decoto. His brother, "Poncho," also a Marine, is still in the Pacific.

A NINTH AIR FORCE SERVICE COMMAND UNIT, Belgium —Sgt. FLORENTINO DELGADO, 22, from Decoto, is an aircraft mechanic with a Ninth Air Force Service Command mobile reclamation and repair unit in Belgium which was recently awarded the Meritorious Service Plaque for its "superior performance in the repair and maintenance of aircaft in England, Fance, Belgium and Germany."

Under adverse weather conditions, with inadequate clothing and equipment, Delgado's unit assembled hundreds of fighter aircraft and light bombers in England at a time when they were urgently needed in the fight for air supremacy over Europe. On the continent they rolled through France and Belgium and into Germany, working in tents one day, hangars the next, returning to combat aircraft which participated in every phase of the Ninth Air Force's brilliant campaign.

Sgt. Delgado's wife, Mrs. Lavina Delgado, and their daughter, Sandra Lee, age 18 months, live in Hayward. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Delgado of Decoto. He entered service in March 1943 and has served more than 18 months overseas.

His brother, Pfc. Primativo Delgado, is in Germany. He has been in the Army 3 years and has received the Purple Heart for battle wounds. He expects to be home soon.

Cox. BERNARD GREEN wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Green of Niles, that he had been transferred from a submarine on which he had been stationed for 13 months. Green has been in the Navy for 4 years; he had attended Washington Union High.

S. 1/c YGNACIO AVILA, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ygnacio C. Avila of Niles, left Saturday, June 2, for Bremerton, Wash., after a 15-day leave.

Avila joined the Navy August 17, 1943, and after two months training was sent to Oregon, where he helped commission the U.S.S. Gambier Bay.

During the battle of the Philippines the Gambier Bay was anchored 50 miles off Leyte, where she was in a position to aid and protect General MacArthur's troops. A Japanese task force attacked her and after an hour's battle in which she had been hit 28 times she began to capsize.

The loud speaker system in the aft of the ship had been damaged and the gun crew, of which Avila was a member, was unaware of the order to abandon ship. He didn't jump until half the ship was underwater.

He leaped from the flight deck and was only 200 yards from the ship when she disappeared. He was picked up after two and a half days in the water. From the rescue vessel he was transferred to the U.S.S. Comfort ,which took him to New Guinea, from here he boarded a transport bound for San Francisco. He received a 32-day survivor's leave.

He has three brothers in the Army. Pfc. Rito Avila enlisted in 1940 and was wounded 3 months ago in Germany. Cpl. Peter Avila is with the Air Corps and Pfc. Mateo Avila has been in Rome for 18 months.

Another brother, Sgt. John Avila, was killed in Sicily August 9. He was awarded the Silver Star and the Purple Heart.

The father of the boys was in the Navy during the last war on the battleship Florida.

Cpl. ANTHONY BETTENCOURT, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bettencourt of Centerville, wrote recently to Lawrence Bonturi of Niles that he was in Berchtesgaden, Germany. He described the famous Hitler hide-away in detail, mentioning the shrubbery that surrounds the gardens and the rivers that add to the scenic beauty of the place.

Bettencourt traveld to Scotland from New York on the Queen Mary and apparently is not impressed with the luxury of Berchtesgaden.

A graduate of Washington High, he has been in the Army for more than three years. He is now in charge of 50 medical patients.

B.M. 1/c ROBERT JACKSON, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Fournier of Niles, arrived with his wife, Patricia, from Mt. Vernon, Wash., last Monday for a short visit with his family.

Jackson, who has been in the Navy for more than four years, had been stationed at Mt. Vernon for permanent shore duty until he received a change of orders. In compliance with the new orders he left yesterday for Shoemaker for reassignment.

For his first two years in the Navy he was stationed in Kodiak, Alaska, at the Naval Air Station. The next two years he spent aboard a Liberty ship ,taking part in several engagements.

His wife will remain in Niles until he is sent overseas; then she and his sister, Marjorie Jackson, will leave for Seattle, where they will visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Phielschafer.

S. 1/c LESTER GOMES arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Rita Gomes of Irvington, Tuesday, May 24, for a 30-day leave.

A graduate of Washington Union High School in 1943, he has been in the Navy since January 1944. After his basic training at Farragut, Ida., he was sent overseas, where he has served for a year.

—V—

Lt. L. W. MUSICK, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Musick of Decoto, left Tuesday for his new post, where, besides the 250 colored soldiers now under his command, he will be senior officer over 2500 mixed troops. His wife and two children will remain in Decoto until his return.

Sgt. ELMO BAIN wrote recently to Miss Wilma Holden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Nickas of Niles, who is now working in San Francisco, that he is stationed in Bolzane, Italy, and that he expects his discharge soon. Bain, who is a former steel mill worker, has been in the Army since February 21, 1941, and has been overseas for 23 months.

F. 1/c FRANK SCAMMAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Scamman of Irvington, arrived home May 23 for a 20-day leave. He has been transferred recently from Morro Bay to Coronado, where he expects to be stationed temporarily.

A graduate of Washington High in 1943, he has been in the Navy for 20 months.

Pvt. MANUEL ENOS, son of John Enos Sr., underwent an operation last Tuesday at the Dewitt Hospital in Auburn for a spinal ailment. He will remain in the hospital until completely recovered and then will receive a medical discharge. Recently returned from a year and a half overseas, he fought in the invasion of Germany.

After his discharge, he and his wife Mary, who has been living with her mother, Mrs. Mary Milina of Decoto, will live in San Leandro.

HOME-MADE BUTTER

Home-made butter, which is more appreciated than ever during the present wartime fat shortage, is a possibility for any family with a surplus supply of home produced milk and cream.

A small amount of equipment and attention to a few details will insure success. Clean milk or cream of good quality and clean utensils are of primary importance, as any sort of taint will carry over into the butter. Rapid cooling of the milk and proper temperatures during storage help assure both good flavor and texture.

Butter may be made from either sweet cream or that which has been mildly soured. Excessive souring gives inferior flavor and poor keeping qualities.

Pasteurization of the milk safeguards health, cuts down rancidity and insures good flavor. The equipment needed for pasteurization consists of a dairy thermometer and a large pan or kettle in which the container of cream may be placed for heating. The cream is heated to 150 degrees F., held at this temperature for 30 minutes, and then cooled quickly.

The churning temperature which gives the best yield of good quality butter is between 52 and 66 degrees F. Churning time should be about 30 to 40 minutes, or until fat kernels form which are the size of a grain of wheat. After the buttermilk is drawn off, the butter is washed through at least two waters and is then salted and worked.

During seasons of the year when the butter supply is greater than the family need, the surplus may be stored in a freezing locker or in a salt solution. The directions for storage of butter in brine are also included in the circular.

Complete directions for all steps in making butter will be found in a free circular "Home Buttermaking," by D. H. Nelson. This is available in the office of the home demonstration agent or farm adviser in the Post Office Building, Hayward, or it may be obtained by writing to the Agricultural Extension Service, University of California, in Berkeley.

MORE PROTEIN

More protein for the family diet in the current meat shortage can be provided by the family cow. Butter and cheese are hard to get at the markets, too, and the point value is high. More people are making butter and cheese at home. A good family cow often produces more milk than the family will use and the surplus can be made into butter and cheese.

The Agriculture Extension Service has published an emergency food production circular for the benefit of rural or suburban people wishing to produce milk at home—"Home Milk Production." Circulars on home cheese making are also available.
